PROVISIONAL TAX

Serving with passion...

All Companies and Close Corporations are registered automatically as provisional taxpayers upon registration for tax purposes.

Individuals who should register as a provisional taxpayer:

1. Any taxpayer who is registered as a farmer; and
2. Any individual who earns income that is not remuneration.

An individual who meets the above two requirements should apply for registration as a provisional taxpayer with NamRA Filing Requirements.

Filing Requirements

All Companies and Close Corporations are required to submit two provisional tax returns with payments in a year.

1. First one within six months of the beginning of the financial year and pay half of the annual estimate; and
2. Second one not later than the last day of the financial year and pay the total tax

All individuals registered as provisional taxpayers are required to submit two provisional tax returns with payments in a year.

1. First one by 30 August and pay half the annual estimate; and

2. Second one not later than 28 February and pay the total tax due.

Penalties

A penalty of up to 100% of the unpaid tax is charged if the first payment is less than 40% of the total tax and the total amount paid during the year is less than 80% of the total tax due for the year.

A 10% penalty, limited to the tax amount, is levied on the late payment of the provisional tax.

A penalty of N$100 per day is levied on the late submission of the provisional tax return.
